Members go to: <http://journals.sagepub.com/>

From there they click on My Account, and they will get the pop up. They need to click on where it says: On your first visit to SAGE Journals please set a new password at the top of the pop up.

The screenshot shows the SAGE Journals website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the SAGE Journals logo, links for 'Browse', 'Resources', and 'My Tools', and a search bar labeled 'Search all SAGE Journals'. To the right of the search bar are buttons for 'Sign in: My Account' and 'Institution'. Below the navigation bar is a large banner with the text 'Your gateway to world-class journals' and a search bar. The banner features images of a red book titled 'mobile communication', a tablet displaying a graph, and a laptop. Below the banner is a section titled 'Browse Journals By Discipline' with four buttons: 'Health Sciences', 'Social Sciences & Humanities', 'Materials Sciences & Engineering', and 'Life & Biomedical Sciences'. On the right side of the page, a 'Sign in to my Account' pop-up window is displayed. The pop-up contains the following text: 'Sign in to my Account', 'On your first visit to SAGE Journals please set a new password', 'Email:', a text input field, 'Password:', a text input field, a checked checkbox for 'Remember me', a red 'Sign in' button, and links for 'Forgotten your password? Set new password' and 'Need Help?'. Below the pop-up is a 'Register for an Account' section with a dark grey 'Register' button.
